This application will be put before a meeting of the Benchers of the Society and from the date of disbarment, your name will be removed from the Register of Members of the Society.

Please note that, following a resolution of the Benchers, a barrister who has been disbarred at their own request in order to become a solicitor may not thereafter represent themselves as being a barrister or as being entitled as such whether by use of the title Barrister-at-Law (or any abbreviation thereof) or otherwise.

I understand that King's Inns will inform the Legal Services Regulatory Authority (LSRA) of the date of my disbarment and that my name will be removed from the Roll of Practising Barristers.
