Time as Form

Spirasi

@spirasi

Lower Foyer Rathdown House

Time as Form introduces the work by asylum seeker and refugee artists, represented by Spirasi, for the first time to the public. In a response to the lived experience of trauma, these artists have made work in the process of recovery and rehabilitation in Ireland, including while living in direct provision. The artists exhibiting are Hina Khan, Hichem and Nasir Elsafi. Curator: Anita Groener. Event organised by Natacha O'Brien (Natacha@spirasi.ie)

RD004 Rathdown House

Tell Them Our Names is a short film directed by Mary Moynihan, and written by Paul Kennedy, Mary Moynihan, and Fiona Bawn-Thompson.

Opening on an anonymous beach in Europe, a group of women and children line up in front of a bureaucrat's desk, only to be barked at by a gatekeeper. But the women are not silent. They are here for a reason. An unexpected act of violence is carried out, as the women become authors of their own stories. Tell Them Our Names is an imagined recreation of moments from the lives of five powerful women during WWII. Set in the context of World War 2 and the Spanish Civil War, these powerful women speak of harrowing acts of oppression and inhumane treatment, yet still, despite all the odds, the spirit of defiance and hope rings through.

Grangegorman History Project

Upper Foyer Rathdown House

The GDA, in partnership with the Royal Irish Academy, the HSE, Dublin City Council and TU Dublin is embarking on an ambitious Grangegorman History Project. This project aims to capture the rich and significant history of the site and its surrounding areas and to do so in a variety of creative and interactive ways. A working group has been established and is working towards the publication of a three year programme before the end of the year.

NatureRx

Bí Urban

@Bi_URBAN

3 Manor Street

On Culture Night Bí URBAN will exhibit silver jewellery produced as part of NatureRx, a percentage for art project funded by the Grangegorman Development Agency. In NatureRx workshops participants explore the folklore and medicinal properties of plants growing on their doorstep and immortalise them in precious metal, attributing new value to urban biodiversity. NatureRx is the first stage of public engagement in development of the Lifeline urban greenway.

KING'S INNS

@KingsInns

Heritage Tours

Dining Hall, King's Inns, Constitution Hill, D7

Founded in 1541, The Honorable Society of King's Inns is Ireland's Oldest School of Law. It is a key example of Ireland's Georgian architectural heritage and is one of Ireland's magnificent social venues, and features in films and television programmes like Penny Dreadful, Becoming Jane, and Ordinary Decent Criminals. Take a guided tour of the James Gandon designed Dining Hall, completed in 1806.

REGISTRY OF DEEDS

@PRA_Ireland

Calligraphy Workshop

Henrietta St, D1, D01 EK82

Join a Calligraphy Drop-In Workshop which will teach participants 18th Century Round Hand using sample text from Registry of Deeds archival documents. Learn about the type of equipment and working conditions which Registry of Deeds staff experienced in the 1700s. Also discover the historical and cultural significance of their records.

14 HENRIETTA STREET

Float Down the Liffey

DabbledooMusic and 14 Henrietta Street present 'Float Down The Liffey'; a unique live music and film screening. The film follows a musical journey through Dublin's venues and streets at night with an accompanying live electronica score of brass, percussion and organs. The event will include audience participation.

Performances at 6pm & 7.45pm, first-come, first-served basis.

NA PÍOBAIRÍ UILLEANN

@Napiobairi

Heritage / Music / Talk / Tour

15 Henrietta Street

Na Píobairí Uilleann (the society of Irish pipers) invite you to a guided tour of their Georgian building, located on one of Ireland's most architecturally important streets. The tour will include a visit to the library and archive and will also feature musical performances from leading uilleann pipers.

STONEYBATTER WALKING TOUR

One Hour Archive

One Hour Archive presents the voices of the local community in conversation with artist Louis Haugh as a digital tour of the Grangegorman area, highlighting areas of interest, amusement and reminiscence. This tour bridges new and old, shedding a succinctly personal light on this part of Dublin's rich and diverse community. Download the 'PocketSights' app and search for One Hour Archive to take part in this first-hand story-telling experience.
